This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE

In preparing this Manual, the Committee have assumed that the lists of members of the Church, contained in the Manuals of 1872 and 1883, are in the main accurate, and have therefore incorporated those lists, with such corrections as have come to their attention, into the Historical List of Membership of this Manual. Had the work involved in the other portions of the undertaking been less, those lists of 1872 and 1883 might have been verified by comparison with the original records.

In the preparation of the Historical Sketch, valuable assistance has been received from material gathered by Hollis R. Bailey, Esq., and from "Lectures on the History of the First Church in Cambridge," by the Pastor of this Church.

It is hoped that the Directory of the Church and Congregation will be widely useful, at least in facilitating the business and promoting the social life of the Church. Persons changing their residence will confer a favor by giving prompt notice thereof to the Pastor in writing.

In the details doubtless errors will from time to time be discovered. They should be reported in writing promptly to the Clerk of the Church.

THE CHURCH IN THE PAST

HISTORICAL SKETCH

FIRST CHURCH IN CAMBRIDGE (CONGREGATIONAL)

An epitome of the history of this Church is found upon the tablet on the wall at the west end of the north aisle of the present meeting-house: —

"The Lord our God be with us as He was with our Fathers.
The Settlement of this Town was begun A.D. 1631.
The first Meeting-House was built A.D. 1632.
Rev. Thomas Hooker and Rev. Samuel Stone were ordained Ministers here Oct. 11, 1633:
They removed with their people to found Hartford, Conn., A.D. 1636.
This Church was formed February 1st, A.D. 1636.
The Cambridge Platform was adopted A.D. 1648.
The Church united with the Shepard Congregational Society A.D. 1829.
This House was dedicated A.D. 1872."

Directly opposite is a tablet, equally significant: —

"TO THE MEMORY OF THE MINISTERS OF THIS CHURCH.

THOMAS SHEPARD	A.D. 1636–1649.
JONATHAN MITCHELL	A.D. 1650–1668.
URIAN OAKES	A.D. 1671–1681.
NATHANIEL GOOKIN	A.D. 1682–1692.
WILLIAM BRATTLE	A.D. 1696–1717.
NATHANIEL APPLETON	A.D. 1717–1784.
TIMOTHY HILLIARD	A.D. 1783–1790.
ABIEL HOLMES	A.D. 1792–1831.
NEHEMIAH ADAMS	A.D. 1829–1834.
JOHN ADAMS ALBRO	A.D. 1835–1865.
ALEXANDER MCKENZIE	A.D. 1867– ."

As early as 1632 a church was formed in Newtowne. In 1633 it came under the care of Rev. Thomas Hooker and Rev. Samuel Stone.

This church, with the exception of a few of its members, — notably John Bridge, whose statue stands on the Common and whose memorial tablet is in the north wall of the present meetinghouse, — removed to Connecticut in 1636, and became the first church in Hartford. In October, 1635, a new company, led by Rev. Thomas Shepard, arrived in Boston, and, purchasing the houses and lands of the Hooker company, they formed, with the consent of the magistrates and the assistance of the neighboring churches, the First Church in Cambridge, February 1, 1636, with Mr. Shepard as pastor. An interesting account of this event is given in Winthrop's Journal. The words of the covenant then adopted have not been preserved.

THE MINISTRY

Of the present pastor it is not yet time to speak, but of his predecessors it may be said that they were men of deep piety, and of exceptional learning, ability, and influence. Among the most distinguished was Thomas Shepard. Born at Towcester, England, in 1605, and educated at Emanuel College, Cambridge, he preached five years in England, until he was persecuted for nonconformity. His reputation thus acquired was much increased by his ministry of over thirteen years in New England. Harvard College is said to have been located at Newtowne that it might be "under the orthodox and soul flourishing ministry of Mr. Thomas Shepheard." The relative importance of his church also appears from the fact that in its meetinghouse were held the first two ecclesiastical synods in America, — that of 1637 which condemned as heretical eighty-two opinions, including the views of Ann Hutchinson, and that of 1648 which adopted the Cambridge Platform of Church Discipline, still the basis of government and discipline of the Congregational churches.

A worthy successor to Thomas Shepard was found in Rev. Jonathan Mitchell, "our excellent Mitchel" as Mather describes him, with many words of praise, in his "Magnalia." By accepting the call he not only succeeded to the pulpit of Shepard, but also became the husband of his widow, and acquired the Shepard Homestead.

Mitchell, like the next four pastors, — Urian Oakes, Nathaniel

Gookin, William Brattle, and Nathaniel Appleton,— was a graduate of Harvard College. Indeed, from the beginning the ministers of this church have been associated with the college, several of them officially. Mr. Oakes, while pastor, was also in succession Superintendent of the College, with the rank of President, and then President. Mr. Brattle was first a tutor in the College, then for many years a Fellow of the Corporation, and finally the Treasurer of Harvard College. Mr. Appleton, about the time he was ordained as pastor, was also elected Fellow of the Corporation in Mr. Brattle's place. The last named was the first person to receive the degree of Bachelor of Divinity from Harvard. He possessed wealth and was a patron of learning. He was made a Fellow of the Royal Society of London. In his will he left to the Church his great silver basin to be used as a baptismal font. Mr. Appleton received from the College the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. His pastorate continued for the period, almost unprecedented, of nearly sixty-seven years. On October 27, 1783, when he was almost ninety years of age, he was given an associate in the pastorate by the installation of Rev. Timothy Hilliard.

The next longest pastorate — nearly forty years — was that of Dr. Abiel Holmes. Born at Woodstock, Conn., then a part of Massachusetts, he was graduated at Yale College in 1783. Being ordained to the ministry two years later, he preached at Midway, Ga., for about five years. Then returning to New England for his health, he was settled at Cambridge in 1792. He maintained the reputation of this pulpit for piety and learning. He published several works, of which the principal one was "The Annals of America from the Discovery by Columbus in the Year 1492 to the Year 1826." He was made a Doctor of Divinity by the University of Edinburgh. For over twenty years he was Corresponding Secretary of the Massachusetts Historical Society. He was a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, a trustee of Andover Theological Seminary, and an Overseer of Harvard College. After Dr. Holmes retired, Rev. Nehemiah Adams, his associate for two years, remained three years as pastor, and then accepted a call to the pastorate of the Essex Street Church and Society in Boston. This is the only instance in which a pastor has left this Church to assume the charge of another.

The tenth pastor was Rev. John Adams Albro. Born at Newport, R. I., in 1799, he was early thrown on his own resources. At first he studied music. Later he attended the Law School at Litchfield, Conn., and practiced law for two years at Mansfield in that State. Then, having been converted, he resolved to become a minister. He was graduated from Andover Theological Seminary in 1827. He held pastorates in succession at Middlesex Village in Chelmsford and at Fitchburg. During his ministry here of nearly thirty years the meetinghouse was enlarged three times to accommodate his congregation. The twenty-fifth anniversary of his installation was celebrated by services extending through several days. He published several works, mainly sermons. His chief book was a "Life of Thomas Shepard." Though not a college graduate, he received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from both Bowdoin and Harvard Colleges. On April 15, 1865, at his request, he was released from the pastorate; and in October of the same year a call was extended to Rev. Alexander McKenzie, then minister of the South Parish in Augusta, Me. In December, 1866, the invitation was accepted. At his installation, January 24, 1867, the sermon was preached by Prof. Edwards A. Park, and the address to the people was delivered by Rev. Dr. Nehemiah Adams, formerly pastor of the Church.

Of the present pastorate no adequate record can yet be written, but a few events should at least be referred to. In 1886 the two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the organization of The First Church in Cambridge was celebrated jointly by The First Parish and The Shepard Congregational Society. Besides other exercises, an address was delivered by President Eliot of Harvard University, and a hymn was written and read by Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, son of the eighth pastor of this Church. In 1892 the twenty-fifth, and in 1897 the thirtieth, anniversary of the settlement of the present pastor were celebrated.

In May, 1894, a mission was started near the Riverside Press in Cambridgeport by the Young People's Alliance of the Church. Social and educational as well as religious in its objects, — with Sunday-school, neighborhood meetings, boys' clubs, kindergarten, sewing and other classes, all under one superintendent, — it has outgrown its hired rooms, and expects during the coming year to move into a new building built for it with funds contributed for this purpose.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL

In 1815 a Sunday-school was started, with Miss Mary Munroe as teacher, in the meetinghouse, to promote "the moral and religious improvement of children and youth." "They were taught to read and to commit to memory select portions of the Bible, catechisms, hymns, and prayers, and to answer Cumming's questions on the New Testament. Books and tracts were early provided for their use."

OFF-SHOOTS OF THIS CHURCH

In 1664 that part of the town south of the Charles River, called Cambridge Village, was made a new parish with a separate church under John Eliot — son of the Apostle Eliot — as pastor. About 1692, in the north part of the town, known as Cambridge Farms, a separate church was organized. In 1712–13 this part became the town of Lexington. In 1732, in the northeasterly part of the town, called Menotomy and now Arlington, a new church was organized under Rev. Samuel Cooke as pastor. The parent church gave the new church twenty-five pounds "to furnish their communion table in a decent manner." In 1779 that part of the town south of the Charles River, now known as Brighton, was incorporated as the Third Parish or Little Cambridge; and soon afterwards a new church was organized there, with Rev. John Foster as pastor. In 1814 a College Church, consisting mainly of students and of the members of the Faculty and their families, was formed to meet in University Hall, then being built.

THE DIVISION OF 1829

Toward the close of the eighteenth century the views known as Unitarian gained a foothold in Massachusetts. By 1829 they had been accepted by a majority of the legal voters of The First Parish in Cambridge. At their initiative, Dr. Abiel Holmes, then pastor, was requested to continue the practice, which he had discontinued, of exchanging pulpits with the neighboring clergymen who had adopted the new views; and when he refused he was dismissed from the pastorate, under advice of a council representing churches holding the new views, May 19, 1829. A majority of the members of the Church, supporting Dr. Holmes and denying the authority of the council, but acting in the interest of peace, thereupon worshiped in the old Court House opposite to the meetinghouse, continuing under the ministry of Dr. Holmes, and associated themselves with a new religious corporation, The Shepard Congregational Society, which they organized. This action was approved by an advisory council, June 17, 1829. In 1831, at the demand, followed by suit, of the minority that had remained with The First Parish, the Church, after taking legal advice, surrendered the church fund, the poor's fund, the communion service, the baptismal font, and other property. The money surrendered amounted to about four thousand dollars.

At the present day, the two religious bodies live in mutual courtesy and respect, coöperating from time to time in religious services as upon Thanksgiving Day, and in general for the welfare of the community.

AGREEMENT AS TO NAMES

In 1899, some confusion having been created in the use of the name "The First Church in Cambridge," a joint conference was held between committees representing the two bodies, and the following agreement in regard to the official and common name of each Church was reached and ratified, namely: —

1. Combined or Long Titles. — The First Parish and First Church in Cambridge (1636): Unitarian since 1829.

The First Church in Cambridge (1636) and The Shepard Congregational Society (1829).

The above titles are to be used on tablets, if any, on the buildings, on all stationery, on the calendars or other weekly announcements, and in the records of the two bodies whenever they are applicable, as, for instance, for meetings of the congregation.

2. Separate and Common Titles. — For the records of the meetings of the respective "Churches" the following titles shall be used:

The First Church in Cambridge (Unitarian).
The First Church in Cambridge (Congregational).

For meetings of The First Parish, or of The Shepard Congregational Society, the legal titles of these two bodies shall be used.

For common use in advertisements in local papers the following short titles shall be used: —

The First Church (Unitarian).
The First Church (Congregational).

In the issue of letters missive, or in the call for an ecclesiastical council, and upon similar occasions where the Church is called upon to act apart from the Parish or Society, the following titles may be used: —

The First Church in Cambridge (Unitarian).
The First Church in Cambridge (Congregational).

3. Name of Meetinghouse. — In designating the Church building, the word "First" shall not be used except with such other words as shall clearly distinguish the building belonging to The Shepard Congregational Society from The First Parish Meetinghouse.

PARSONAGES

In 1670 the first parsonage was built upon a lot of about four acres, either a portion of or close by the seven acres in the College Yard, including the present site of Boylston Hall, which had been occupied by Mr. Hooker, Mr. Shepard, and Mr. Mitchell. This house was occupied by Mr. Oakes and his successors in the pastorate till 1807. In this year Dr. Holmes removed from the old parsonage to a house — then known as Hastings House — standing on a part of the site of the present Harvard Gymnasium. This house had been the headquarters of the Committee of Safety and of General Ward. It was the home of Dr. Abiel Holmes till his death in 1837. Shortly after the present meetinghouse was built, just to the north of and in the same enclosure with it, the house now occupied by the present pastor was built and later deeded to him.

MEETINGHOUSES

The first meetinghouse (said by Prince to be the first in the colony to have a bell) was built in 1632, before the arrival of Hooker, and on or near what is now the southwest corner of Mt. Auburn and Dunster Streets. In 1650 a new — the second — meetinghouse was built on what was then called Watch House Hill, now the southwest corner of the College Yard, occupied by Dane Hall. This building was forty feet square, with a four-square shingled roof, and extended a few feet into what is now Harvard Square. During the pastorate of Mr. Brattle the third meetinghouse was built on or near the site of the second, the town voting two hundred and eighty pounds and the College sixty pounds toward its construction. In it a pew was provided for the President of the College, and seats for its students. The first service in it was held October 13, 1706. In 1756–57 the fourth meetinghouse was built a little behind the site of the third, the College granting a strip about 32 feet by 116 feet out of the President's orchard to afford sufficient space. The College also paid one seventh of the expense of the new building, and in return obtained the use of the whole front gallery for the students and a choice pew for the President and family. It had sixty-nine pews apart from the galleries. In this building Washington worshiped in 1775, the Constitution of Massachusetts was framed in 1779, and Lafayette was received with an address of welcome by President Kirkland in 1824. It was from this building that in 1829 the majority of the Church, with their pastor, Dr. Holmes, went out to find temporary refuge in the Old Court House that stood on the opposite side of Harvard Square. A stone inscribed "1756," taken from the foundation of this meetinghouse, when the latter was taken down in 1833, may be seen imbedded in the exterior foundation of the west wall of the north transept of the present meetinghouse. On February 23, 1831, the fifth meetinghouse was dedicated. It was built on a lot given by Miss Sarah Ann Dana at the northwest corner of Mt. Auburn and Holyoke streets.

Soon after the beginning of the present pastorate a large lot was secured on the northwest corner of Garden and Mason streets, and upon it was built, of native stone from the Old Powder House quarries, the sixth and present meetinghouse. Ground was broken August 5, 1870, the corner-stone was laid April 29, 1871, and the building was dedicated May 22, 1872. The architect was Mr. A. C. Martin, to whose memory there is a tablet at the west end of the south aisle. In style, the edifice approaches the Norman or Romanesque. The extreme interior length of the nave is 120 feet, the breadth of nave and aisles together is 60 feet, the length of the transepts from north to south is 92 feet, and the ceiling of nave and transepts clears 46 feet from the floor. The tower and spire — 170 feet high — is surmounted by the historic cockerel, 5 feet 5 inches tall, made in 1721, that formerly stood on the steeple of the "New Brick" Church in Hanover Street, Boston. In the interior are 208 pews, with about 1,040 sittings. In the rear of the main building is a commodious chapel. Upon the completion of these buildings a debt of about $85,000 remained unpaid; but December 9, 1877, by a supreme effort of the church, assisted by Mr. Edward Kimball of Chicago, nearly the whole of this debt then outstanding was subscribed in one day. In 1893 the chapel was enlarged by the addition of a Ladies' Parlor, with a primary room above, and about the same time the walls and ceiling of the main edifice and of the chapel were re-decorated, and new furnishings were provided.

MEMORIAL LECTURN AND WINDOWS

The work of adorning and completing the Lord's House, thus begun by the congregation, has since then been continued by the generous memorial gifts of families and of individuals. In the chancel stands a beautiful brass lecturn, inscribed : —

"The gift of Phœbe Gardiner Horsford to the First Church in Cambridge, in memory of Eben Norton Horsford, Easter, 1894."

On Sunday, April 14, 1895, were dedicated four windows, two in each casement, of Favrile glass, designed by Mr. Frederick Wilson and constructed of over one hundred thousand separate pieces by the Tiffany Glass and Decorating Company of New York. They are inscribed : —

"To the Glory of God and Loving Memory of Eben Norton Horsford. Born July 27, 1818. Died January 1, 1893."

They fill the main opening in the south transept, immediately below a circular window of English glass given when this meetinghouse was erected, by Mrs. Eben Norton Horsford in memory of her sister, Professor Horsford's first wife. A propos of Professor Horsford's devotion to natural science, they comprise four angelic figures, representing from left to right the four elements, Earth, Air, Water, and Fire, inscribed respectively with the following lines from the Benedicite : —

"O, ye Mountains and Hills and all Green Things, bless ye the Lord: O, ye Showers and Dews, bless ye the Lord. O, ye Seas and Floods, bless ye the Lord. O, ye Fire and Heat, bless ye the Lord."

Above these figures is a company of angels, playing on various musical instruments, with the inscription : —

"Praise ye Him, all His Angels, Praise ye Him all His Hosts. O, praise the Lord, ye Angels of His. Ye that scream, fulfil His Commands."

Still higher, in the two small quarterfoil windows, incense is being offered, and the inscription is : —

"The Smoke of the Incense of the Prayers of the Saints ascended up before God."

About the same time another beautiful window was placed in the west opening of the south aisle, with the inscription: —

"They shall be mine, saith the Lord of Hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels. In Loving Memory of Mary Gardiner Horsford, wife of Benjamin Robbins Curtis. Born August 27, 1855: died July 9, 1893."

The east opening of this aisle is filled with a figure representing Faith, and inscribed: —

"When I call to Remembrance the unfeigned Faith that is in thee. In Memory of Sarah Elizabeth Russell."

Directly opposite, in the east opening of the north aisle, is a figure representing the Apostle Paul, and inscribed: —

"Now I Paul myself beseach you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ. In Memory of Charles Theodore Russell."

In the same wall the westerly opening is filled with the figure of an angel, with the inscription: —

"January 24, 1867. A grateful tribute to our Pastor on the thirtieth Anniversary of his Settlement. January 24, 1897."

In the chancel, also, are three memorial windows, the one in the centre representing the "Good Shepherd," presented by the Shepard Guild as a memorial of the work of the young women in this Church; the one to the left representing a woman and child, erected in memory of Harriet Maria Fuller and Charles Richard Fuller; and the one to the right representing the figure of an angel, given by the Nevertheless Circle of King's Daughters "in commemoration of the many years of loving service given to this church of Christ by Rev. Alexander McKenzie, D.D."

This account would not be complete without mention of other men who have served this Church with fidelity and efficiency. Beneath the rear gallery, by the entrance to the north aisle, is a bronze tablet, inscribed: —

"In Memory of Benjamin Francis Wyeth, for thirty-nine years the Honored Sexton of this Church, born 1812 — died 1890. Lord, I have loved the Habitation of thy House, and the Place where thine honor dwelleth."

The last clause applies equally well to the men included in the following lists: —

RULING ELDERS

[The following list comprises the names of those who are known to have been Ruling Elders.]

Edmund Frost. He came to New England in 1635, and was made a Freeman in 1636. He died July 12, 1672.

Richard Champney. He came to New England in 1635, and was made a Freeman in 1636. He died November 26, 1669.

Jonas Clark. He was made a Freeman in 1647. He was ordained Ruling Elder November 15, 1682. He died January 11, 1699, aged eighty years.

John Stone. He came to New England in 1635, it is thought, and was made a Freeman in 1665. He was ordained Ruling Elder November 15, 1682. He died May 5, 1683, aged sixty-four years.

DEACONS

PART II

THE CHURCH IN THE PRESENT

ECCLESIASTICAL PRINCIPLES

The Form of Government of this Church is, in general, that set forth in the "Cambridge Platform," agreed upon by the Elders and Messengers of the Churches assembled in the Synod at Cambridge, 1648. A few of its salient principles are here presented.

1. A Congregational Church. — A Congregational church is a portion of the Church upon earth, consisting of a convenient number of believers, united in one body by a holy covenant, submitting to a Scriptural form of government, and meeting together in one place for the worship of God; for the regular administration of the Sacraments of the Gospel; for the exercise of discipline; and for their mutual edification in the knowledge and fellowship of the Gospel.

2. Rights of the Church. — Every particular church is a complete body in itself, and has authority to adopt that form of government which appears most agreeable to the Word of God; to manage its internal affairs; to choose those officers whom Christ has designated and ordained to teach and rule in the church; to regulate the admission, discipline, and removal of its own members, according to the rule laid down in the Scriptures; and is amenable to no ecclesiastical power upon earth, except by its own consent, or agreeably to the established usage of Congregational churches.

3. Fellowship of Churches. — All those churches which have obtained "like precious faith through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ," and hold the same Divine Head, though distinct, ought to maintain communion and fellowship, by extending to each other the privilege of Communion at the Lord's Table; by the mutual transfer of members when circumstances render removal expedient; by the occasional exchange of pastoral services; by giving and receiving advice and assistance through mutual councils, agreeably to the established usage of Congregational churches; and by earnest efforts to promote each other's welfare.

4. Obligations of Members. — Every member of a church is under obligation to be loyal to the church with which he is connected, and to prove his devotion by liberally supporting the church in its work, with money and effort, by diligent attendance upon its services, by promoting a spirit of fellowship among its members, by advancing its interests and influence in the community by all proper means, and by so increasing his own piety as to enlarge its efficiency and gain for it the approval of the Great Head of the Church.

PRACTICAL RULES

FOR THE DIRECTION OF THE CONSCIENCE

"That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

1. Maintain, according to your ability and opportunity, all the ordinances which Christ has instituted for His own glory and the edification of the Church.

2. Regard the favor and everlasting enjoyment of God as the great end of life, and let all your plans and efforts in the world have primary reference to this end.

3. Contemplate the obedience, sacrifice, mediation, and intercession of Christ as the procuring cause of all blessings, temporal, spiritual, and eternal; and gratefully acknowledge Him as the only source of your peace and joy.

4. Earnestly strive to walk in Christ's steps and to be holy as He is holy, that you may adorn the doctrine of God your Saviour in all things, and recommend the religion of the gospel to the consciences and hearts of your fellow-men.

5. Ever keep in mind that love to God and zeal for His glory are the highest duties of the Christian; and judge of your acceptable performance of them, not by an occasional excitement, but by your habitual frame of mind; by the punctual and steady discharge of the obligations which rest upon you as Christians; by your cheerful submission to the divine will; and by your constant and earnest efforts to promote the kingdom of Christ in the world.

6. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy according to the commandment, and endeavor to avoid all disturbance and wandering of mind in the services of the sanctuary; to banish worldly cares from the heart, and exclude secular subjects from conversation on the Lord's Day, and to make it a season of sacred rest and of holy enjoyment.

7. Maintain the daily worship of God in the family and in the closet; and that you may avoid all coldness and formality in this service, prepare yourselves for it by devout reading and meditation.

8. Set apart convenient and sufficient seasons for a prayerful, systematic, and thorough study of the Bible, that you may grow in knowledge and in spiritual understanding of divine truth; that you may be able to serve and worship God according to His will; that you may not be tossed to and fro and blown about by every wind of doctrine; and that you may be perfectly joined together in the same judgment respecting the essential doctrines and duties of religion.

9. Guard against a selfish and exclusive devotion to your own interests, and endeavor in all suitable ways to promote the well-being of your fellow-men.

10. Cultivate a kind and benignant temper towards all, and strive to avoid everything that will tend unnecessarily to wound the character or feelings of others.

11. Make it your great object to understand clearly and to perform faithfully all the duties resulting from your several relations as men and as Christians.

12. Frequently review the solemn covenant which you have entered into with God and His people, and study to reform whatever has been wrong in your temper or conduct, and to bring your whole inward and outward life into harmony with what you have publicly engaged to do, relying upon the atoning merits of your crucified Redeemer for pardon and acceptance, and upon the sanctifying influence of the Holy Spirit for growth in grace and complete victory over sin.

13. Finally, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

And the peace of God which passeth knowledge shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

PRINCIPLES OF THE FAITH

This statement comprises, in general, principles of the Faith, held by this Church since its organization in 1636, which have been preached from the pulpit and received by the people during the present pastorate.

Approved by the Church, June 29, 1900.

God is a Spirit, infinite, eternal, and unchangeable, in His being wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness, and truth.

God reveals Himself to men as the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, the same in substance, equal in power and glory.

The Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by divine inspiration, and principally teach what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man, and they are the only perfect rule of faith and practice.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES TEACH

That man was made in the image and likeness of God, that he might glorify God and enjoy Him forever.

That man, left to the freedom of his own will, has by his disobedience fallen from the estate in which he was created.

That God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have eternal life.

That the Son of God loved the world and gave Himself for it; that He was made man, in His humiliation fulfilled all righteousness, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross, whereby He is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing He ever liveth to make intercession for them.

That men are saved from their disobedience and its desert through their faith in the one Redeemer, whereby they receive His grace, and, confiding in His mediation, devote themselves to the obedience of His commandments.

That the Holy Spirit, who is one with the Father and the Son, persuades and enables men to believe on the one Saviour and to do His will; that He renews the willing heart and sanctifies it by His presence, bearing witness with our spirit that we are the children of God, and filling the heart with all joy and peace in believing, that we may abound in hope.

That the belief in Christ, the divine Saviour and Lord, is to be attended with the sacrament of Baptism, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, which is the seal of the covenant of grace, and of the believer's engagement in all things to be the Lord's.

That parents who themselves are in covenant with God can enter into covenant with Him in behalf of their children, and that the children may be baptized through the faith of their parents; and that the covenant and the baptism are to be accepted by the children when they have been instructed in their meaning.

That the Church of Christ is the company of those who believe on Him and are baptized, who are by His direction associated under His name, for witness and fellowship, for worship and service, for mutual comfort and help, for the maintenance of His truth and the extending of His gospel, for the enjoyment of His Sacraments and their orderly administering according to His will.

That besides Baptism, the only Sacrament of His Church is the Lord's Supper, wherein is the divine memorial of the Saviour's death for our sake, in the assurance of His presence, in the sanctity of discipleship, in the unity of His friends and the Communion of Saints in earth and in heaven.

That the Kingdom of Christ is an everlasting Kingdom and is to fill the earth; and that every one bearing His name is to be faithful to Him, to make His name known, to repeat His words of grace, to bear witness to His truth, and to bring men under His rule, until the whole world has heard the Gospel of grace and truth, and the Kingdom of God has come and His will is done in earth as it is in heaven.

The Holy Scriptures teach the Resurrection of the dead and the life everlasting; that the Redeemer will judge the world in righteousness and truth, when those who have accepted the mercy of God which has been freely offered to them shall enter upon Glory, Honor, and Immortality.

This is life eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus Christ.

FORM OF ADMISSION

TO THE

COMMUNION OF THE CHURCH

Adopted 1872. Amended June 15, 1900

The Candidates shall present themselves before the pulpit, where they shall be met by the Minister, who shall repeat one or more of the following sentences of the Holy Scriptures, or such other sentences as he may choose: —

Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

Whosoever therefore shall confess Me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.

The Minister shall then address the Candidates as follows, and shall recite the Creed of the Church for their assent: —

Dearly Beloved, — You have presented yourselves in this holy place to make confession of the Lord Jesus Christ, and to enter into covenant with his Church. We trust that you know the solemnity and the blessedness of this time, and we are confident that He which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

WE BELIEVE in one living and true GOD; Creator, Preserver, and Ruler of all things: glorious in holiness, plenteous in mercy and truth.

In the FATHER ALMIGHTY: Lord and giver of life; who is to be supremely loved and perfectly obeyed; whose commandment is holy and just and good.

And in JESUS CHRIST, HIS SON, OUR LORD; who was in the beginning with God and was God; who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven and was made man. He was crucified, dead, and buried. He arose from the dead and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of the FATHER. He shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead; when every one shall receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Of His kingdom there shall be no end.

And we BELIEVE in the HOLY GHOST, the COMFORTER; by whom the Scriptures were given: who renews and sanctifies the heart; by whose power we are kept unto immortal life. Who, with the FATHER and the SON, together ONE GOD, is to be worshiped and glorified, world without end.

We BELIEVE in the forgiveness of sins through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, whose name we confess, whose Word we receive, in whose mediation alone we steadfastly trust.

We BELIEVE in one Church, on earth and in heaven: in one Baptism: in one Communion in the body and blood of Christ; and we look for the Resurrection of the dead, and the Life of the world to come. Amen.

You who have now made this Confession do acknowledge the Lord Jehovah — the FATHER, the SON, and the HOLY GHOST — to be your God; to Him you devote your supreme affection; to His service you consecrate your lives; and naming yourselves with the name of Christ, you avow your purpose to glorify Him in your body and in your spirit, which are His.

Baptism will here be administered to those who have not before been baptized, with these words: —

A. B., I baptize thee, in the name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY GHOST. Amen.

To the other Candidates the Minister shall say: —

You who were baptized in childhood do now gratefully accept that as your baptism, while you confirm the covenant which then was made for you.

The Members of the Church shall here rise and the Minister shall continue: —

Because you make this Confession, We, the members of this Church, affectionately welcome you to fellowship with us in all duties and blessings, rejoicing with you in the joy of the Lord, and praying for you with assurance and longing, that when the Chief Shepherd shall appear, ye may receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Here the Church, with those who have just made confession, and those who have been received from other churches, shall repeat this covenant, saying: —

We who are now brought together and united into one Church, under the Lord Jesus Christ, our Head, in such sort as becometh all those whom He hath redeemed and sanctified to Himself, do here solemnly and religiously, as in His most holy presence, promise and bind ourselves to walk in all our ways according to the rule of the Gospel, and in all sincere conformity to His holy ordinances, and in mutual love and respect each to other, so near as God shall give us grace.

Here the Minister shall take the new members by the hand in token of fellowship with Christ and the Church, repeating some appropriate sentence of Scripture. He shall then address them in these words: —

Now, therefore, Beloved in the Lord, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief Corner-stone. For this cause —

[Here all will take the customary attitude of prayer]

we bow our knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height, and to know the love of Christ which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

MEETINGS FOR BUSINESS.

SECTION 1. General Provisions.

1. Organization. — All meetings of the Church for business shall be opened with prayer. The office of Moderator shall pertain to the Pastor, if present, and in his absence to the Deacons, in the order of seniority of continuous service, if present.

2. Franchise. — All members of the Church who are at least twenty-one years of age shall be entitled to vote.

3. Quorum. — Ten such members shall constitute a quorum.

4. Introduction of Business. — Excepting the granting of letters of dismissal and recommendation and the appointing of delegates to religious conferences and councils, no business shall be submitted to the vote of the Church until at least one week's notice thereof shall have been given to the Standing Committee.

SECT. 2. Regular Meetings.

At any regular weekly meeting of the Church for conference and prayer, such business may be submitted to vote as shall be in order under these By-Laws.

SECT. 3. Special Meetings.

A special meeting of the Church for business may be called at any time when in the opinion of the Pastor or of any two of the Deacons it shall be expedient, or upon the written application of ten members of the Church; and in either case notice of such meeting and of its object shall first be given from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding.

SECT. 4. Annual Meetings.

1. Time. Notice. — The Annual Meeting of the Church for the election of officers, the reception of reports, and for other business shall be held on such evening in January of each year as the Pastor and Deacons shall appoint. A notice of such meeting shall be given from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding it.

2. Order of Business. — The order of business at the Annual Meeting shall be as follows: (1) prayer; (2) reading of the records of the last annual meeting; (3) reports of the Treasurer and Auditor; (4) election of officers; (5) other reports; (6) deferred business; (7) new business.

ARTICLE II.

OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. General Provisions.

1. Names. Time and Mode of Choice. — The officers of the Church in addition to the Pastor shall be four Deacons, two Associate Deacons, a Treasurer, a Clerk of the Church, an Auditor, a Superintendent of the Sunday-school, a Standing Committee, a Clerk of the Standing Committee, and such other officers as may be provided under Article II, Section 3, Paragraph 9, of these By-Laws. All such officers shall be chosen by ballot at the Annual Meeting.

SECT. 2. Vacancies.

A vacancy in any of such offices may be filled at any special meeting called for that purpose.

SECT. 3. Terms and Duties.

1. Deacons. — One Deacon shall be chosen each year for the term of four years. His duty shall be to assist in the administration of the Lord's Supper, to provide supply for the pulpit in the Pastor's absence, to distribute the charities, and aid the Pastor generally in the care of the church, and to preside, as above stated, at business meetings.

2. Associate Deacons. — One Associate Deacon shall be elected each year for the term of two years, and shall not be eligible for re-election until one year has elapsed after the expiration of such term. His duty shall be to assist the Deacons, upon their request, in the performance of their duties as above stated.

3. Treasurer. — A Treasurer of the Church shall be elected each year for the term of one year. His duty shall be, under the direction of the Standing Committee, to collect, care for, and disburse all moneys belonging or accruing to the Church, and to make a report at the Annual Meeting.

4. Clerk. — A Clerk of the Church shall be elected each year for the term of one year. His duty shall be to keep the records of the Church.

5. Auditor. — An Auditor shall be elected each year for the term of one year. His duty shall be to examine the Treasurer's accounts and report thereon at the Annual Meeting.

6. Superintendent of the Sunday-school. — A Superintendent of the Sunday-school shall be elected each year for the term of one year. His duty shall be to supervise and direct the work of the Sunday-school and to make a report at the Annual Meeting.

7. A Clerk of the Standing Committee. — A Clerk of the Standing Committee shall be elected each year for the term of one year. His duty shall be to keep the records of the Standing Committee.

8. Standing Committee. — Two persons — one of whom shall be a woman — shall be elected each year for the term of three years, and shall not be eligible for reëlection until one year has elapsed after the expiration of such term; and the six persons so elected, with the Pastor, the Deacons, the Associate Deacons, the Superintendent of the Sunday-school, the President of the Young People's Alliance, the Clerks of the Church and of the Standing Committee, shall constitute the Standing Committee of the Church, of which five shall constitute a quorum. Its chairmanship shall pertain to the Pastor, if present, and, in his absence, to the Deacons in the order of seniority of continuous service, if present. This committee shall meet at the call by mail of its Clerk upon the request in writing of the Pastor or of any three others of its members. Its duty shall be to act in general as an advisory and executive board, to supervise all work and organizations of the Church, to consider all applications for admission to the Church, and to propound the names of such as it shall approve, and to act as a Committee of Inquiry in matters of discipline. Of this committee the Pastor, the Deacons, and the two women members of longest service shall be a Sub-Committee on Admissions, to meet at the call of the Pastor or of any two of the Deacons, to receive all applications for admission to the church and to report upon the same to the Standing Committee.

9. Other Officers. — Such other officers shall be elected each year with such duties and for such terms as the Church may from time to time provide.

ARTICLE III.

ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Transfer of Letters.

Members of other churches who are worshiping continuously with this Church are expected to apply to this Church for admission by letter as early as circumstances will permit.

SECT. 2. Examination.

All applicants for admission to membership in the Church shall first present themselves before the Standing Committee, and at such time and place as the latter shall appoint, except such as are specially excused therefrom by that committee.

SECT. 3. Propounding.

The candidates for admission to the Church who shall be approved by the Standing Committee shall be propounded to the Church, and notice thereof given to the Congregation at least one week previous to their reception.

SECT. 4. Vote of the Church.

The vote of the Church upon the applications for admission to membership shall be taken at a stated meeting at the close of the Preparatory Lecture immediately preceding the administration of the Lord's Supper.

SECT. 5. Reception by Confession.

All persons that join the Church by confession shall be received by the form of admission contained in this Manual on the day of the administration of the Lord's Supper and in the presence of the Church; but if any person so joining is, in the opinion of the Pastor and Deacons, unable, through sickness or otherwise, to attend, such a one may be received at such other time and place as the Pastor and Deacons may designate.

ARTICLE IV.

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. By Letter.

1. Transfer of Letters. — Members of this Church removing beyond its watch and care are expected to apply for letters of dismission and recommendation to other churches as soon as circumstances shall permit.

2. Mode of Application. — All applications for letters of dismission and recommendation shall be made in writing, stating the ground upon which they may be desired.

3. Effect of Dismissal. — If a letter of dismissal and recommendation be granted, the applicant's membership in this Church shall thereupon be suspended pending the acceptance of the letter by the church to which it is addressed, and shall be terminated by the receipt of notice of such acceptance, or by the expiration of one year from the date of such letter without the receipt of such notice.

SECT. 2. By Unexplained Absence or Neglect.

If any member of this Church during a continuous period of three years shall absent himself from the Divine Service and the Communion Table of this Church, or, having removed his residence from this vicinity, shall not apply for a letter of dismissal and recommendation; and if, further, when notified thereof by letter addressed to his last abode known to the Church, he shall fail for another year to make a satisfactory answer, he may, if the Standing Committee so recommend, be dropped from the list of membership by a vote of two thirds of the members present and voting at any business meeting of the Church; provided that, if subsequently his negligence be satisfactorily explained, he may, if the Standing Committee so recommend, be restored to the list and privileges of membership by a like vote of the Church.

SECT. 3. By Misconduct.

If in the opinion of the Standing Committee a member of the Church be guilty of conduct inconsistent with his profession of faith or his duty to the Church, he may, if the Standing Committee so recommend, be suspended or dismissed from his membership by a two thirds vote of the members present and voting at any business meeting of the Church; provided that, if subsequently he repent of such conduct, he may, if the Standing Committee so recommend, be restored to membership by a like vote of the Church; and provided further that no such member shall be suspended or dismissed until an opportunity for a hearing before the Church shall have been given to him after he shall have had at least one week's notice in writing of the time set for such hearing and of the charges preferred against him.

ARTICLE V.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES.

SECTION 1. Meeting for Conference and Prayer.

A meeting of the Church for conference and prayer shall be held each week upon Friday evening or upon such other evening as the Pastor and Deacons may upon occasion deem more convenient. But this meeting may be temporarily discontinued if and so long as the Standing Committee shall direct.

SECT. 2. The Communion.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper shall be celebrated six times each year, namely, upon the first Sabbaths of January, March, May, July, September, and November, or upon such other Sabbaths as shall upon occasion seem to the Pastor and Deacons more convenient.

SECT. 3. Infant Baptism.

Infants may be presented for baptism at such times and places as the Pastor and Deacons may designate.

SECT. 4. Preparatory Lecture.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Church immediately preceding the administration of the Lord's Supper, a lecture shall be delivered preparatory to the reception of that Sacrament.

ARTICLE VI.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

SECTION 1. Definition of "Deacon."

In these By-Laws the term "Deacon" shall not include the term "Associate Deacon."

SECT. 2. Committee on Nominations.

The Clerk of the Church, the last elected Deacon, with the Associate Deacon and the woman member of the Standing Committee of seniority in service, shall be a Committee on Nominations to report at the Annual Meeting a list of nominations for officers for the ensuing year.

SECT. 3. Suspension of By-Laws.

Any one of the By-Laws set forth above in Paragraph 4 of Section 1 of Article I, in Section 3 of Article 3, and in Section 4 of Article 3 may be suspended at any business meeting upon the recommendation of any three of the Pastor and Deacons and by a unanimous vote of the members of the Church present and voting.

SECT. 4. Changes in the By-Laws.

No alteration shall be made in these By-Laws, or in the Articles of Faith and of Covenant set forth in this Manual, except at a special meeting of the Church called for that purpose, and by a vote of two thirds of the members of the Church present and voting.
